RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

WABC – New York, New York

February- Present

Media Manager

Stay in constant communication with all news crews including the video editors, writers, producers, anchors, reporters, assignment desk. Download "flip" specific media for the upcoming shows. Responsible for sending requested material to reporter crews in the field. Assign video editors their projects for the day. Alert the writers and producers if any changes need to be made to the rundown. Step in and help the video editors if they are falling behind/busy. Record on live shots/reporter tracks.

Video Editor

February- Present

Edit live video for daily newscasts. Import and export video content through Adobe Premiere and Dalet Galaxy. Creation of content from various file types and video formats.

SiriusXM RADIO – New York, New York

2023–2024

Audio Editor

Edit live MLB, NASCAR, College Football, College Basketball and MLS audio to be broadcasted daily on SiriusXM Radio. My responsibility is to make sure highlights are grabbed in real time for immediate use on the air. My high level of sports knowledge allows me to determine which highlights are needed. I oversee cutting highlights, postgame soundbites, and uploading hourly updates to be broadcasted on our platform. Edits are created using Dalet Galaxy and are to be inputted into our universal Google Drive for current and future use. My schedule consists of weekends, late nights, and holidays.

Associate Producer

2023-2024

Assisted in production for multiple live radio shows on NBA Radio. Tasked with being in control of the sound board. Responsibilities included: making sure all audio was clear before the shows start, bringing the show in and out of breaks, recording the shows through Adobe, and making executive decisions regarding what audio will be used coming back from breaks.

THE FOUR HORSEMEN OF FANTASY

2021-2024

Co-Host

Along with partners, developed and shared the hosting of a fantasy sports podcast, which appears on YouTube and Spotify. Viewers received a wide-ranging discussion of current fantasy sports topics from the perspective of informed co-hosts along with humor and call-in responses.

- Knowledge and Skill Development – Gaining valuable experience with the podcast format in an entrepreneurial start-up business environment. Learning how to build an audience by combining subject matter expertise, strong show preparation, spontaneity, and collaboration. A major focus is on continuous improvement.

NEWS 12 WESTCHESTER – Yonkers, New York

2021-2022

Part-Time Video Editor –

Edited live video for daily newscasts. Imported and exported video content through Adobe Premiere. Established live signals for broadcast and video intake. Created content from various file types and video formats. Ingested, recorded, organized, converted, uploaded/downloaded video to edit newscasts/breaking news according to scripts. Selected and combined the most effective shots of each scene to form a logical, and smoothly running story. Reviewed reporters' stories to determine whether corrections were necessary. Tackled post-production tasks such as titling, color correction, and audio correction. Maintained editing equipment.

- Cross Functional Collaboration – Took direction and worked independently, but also worked closely with producers, photographers, and other personnel to discuss assignments and decide what worked best for that story, newscast, and the overall product.
- Knowledge and Skill Development – Developed high level professional collaboration skills in a fast-paced, deadline-driven environment. Role required the ability to give 100% focus to the need of the moment, and to be able to quickly pivot to address elevated priorities.
